

Black letters are mainly descriptions of patterns.

Blue letters are descriptions of polar caps and clouds.

Brown letters are the description about dust.

Red is a special note.

Elysium (215W,+30)付近の様子が、分かった、夕霧の出る時間になると、明るくなる範囲が広がるが、濃い雲の広がっている範囲は、Elysium (215W,+30)の上が基本のようだ。R や I R でも明るく記録されることから、もともと明るい台地がそのまま見えているという感じだ。

I was able to see the area around Elysium (215W, +30). When the evening mist appeared, the brighter area spread, but the area where the thick clouds spread seemed to be mainly above Elysium (215W, +30). Since it was recorded brightly in R and IR, it seemed like the originally bright plateau was visible as it was.
